LIGHT STOCK TRADES

SPECULATION RESTRICTED TO A SMALL PROFESSIONAL CLIQUE.

Market Felt the Effects of Higher Prices for American Securities-Local Markets Quiet.

At New York yesterday money on call was eas, at 363% per cent.; last loan, 3; closed old toms, 7c; ducks, &c; geese, 5c.

Prime mercantile paper, 566 per cent. Sterling exchange was strong, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.884@4.881/2 for demand and $4.874@4.87% for sixty days; posted rates, $4.88@4.88% and $4.89@4.89%;

commercial bills, $4.86%. Silver certificates, 68% 269c; bar silver, 68%c. Total sales of stocks yesterday were 118,194 shares, including: American Tobacco, 9,200; 'American Sugar, 11,100; Burlington, 10,600; Chicago Gas, 16,100; General Electric, 6,200; Louisville & Nashville, 6.900; Northern Pacific preferred, 3,400; New York, S. & W. preferred, 7,000; Reading, 3,400; Rock Island,

3,200; St. Paul, 8,400; Tennessee Coal and Iron, 5,400. Speculation in stocks was again restricted on the New York 'Change yesterday, the total dealings showing only an insignificant increase over Wednesday's slim total. Pricas moved irregularly, and at the volition of the scalpers. Of commission house operations there was not a trace. The industrial shares were attempted to be galvanized by the usual conflicting rumors and suggestions, but even they lagged unresponsive to the ordinarily effective manipulation. At the same time an undertone of strength, chiefly due to the covering of short contracts, was apparent, despite sales at intervals to take profits and the putting out of new lines of shorts. The putting out of new lines of shorts. The carry dealings were on a very moderate full weight 90095c; light 60065c; 2-pound. conflicting rumors and suggestions, but even scale, but the market was favorably affected by higher prices for American securities in string beans, 70@90c; Lima beans, $1.10@1.20 London, where the fortnightly settlement was in progress. The improvements, as a rule, however, were confined to fractions, and a reactionary tendency developed later in the day. Decided strength was noted in a few of the usually inactive shares, Consolilated Gas being the most prominent at a rise of 2 per cent. Chicago Gas receded fractionally at the outset, but subsequently developed firmness and rose 1½ per cent. to 63%. The stock was the leader modest total of 16,000 shares. The buying was attributed to insiders, who have re-cently been steady purchasers. The street assumes that the advance is based on a more conciliatory attitude by Attorney-general Maloney, but Chicago dispatches were received quoting that official as saying that ediments toward the declaration of end were as great as ever. Of course expects consistency in a traders' market. There was renewed weakness, gh the dealings were very moderate in quehanna & Western shares. No new arguments against the property were in-troduced, however. As has been noted on the subject in these dispatches, the smaller anthracite coal properties have been handi-capped ever since the present rigorous re-striction of production has been operative, in that they cannot as formerly rush coal to market, regardless of price, in order to meet interest and other requirements. Yesterday's unfavorable reports rgarding Susquehanna elicited fresh official denials. The common stock lost a point and the pre-ferred 2%, the latter subsequently recover-ing 1% per cent. on the official announcement that the payment of the April interest was assured. Some surprise was expressed over the nonreflection in prices of an advance in actual rates of sterling exchange in the foremoon to a point encouraging spec-ulation as to a possible revival of gold exports within the next two weeks. An advance of a half cent in the posted motations for long and short sterling an-iounced by a leading drawer had, however, a depressing effect in the late opera-tions. A general shading of prices occurred which imparted an easier tone to the clos-ing. In most cases the leading shares left off without noteworthy change. Railway bonds were firm on dealings $717,000. The advances ranged from ½ to 2 per cent., the last in St. Louis & San Francisco consol fours. Susquehanna & Western general fives sold down 4% per cent. Government bonds were slightly higher on transactions of $175,000. In State issues, $5,-On Virginia centuries sold at 61%.

LOCAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

More Activity in Trade, with Slight Changes in Values. There has been shough improvement in trade the last three days to mention the fact, but not sufficient to give any room part of the month. Comparatively speaking the present month has shown few changes in quotations owing to the fact that prices could not well go lower and the duliness of trade prevented any advance. The grocers have come nearer doing their ordinary volume of business and with them prices have ruled steady and scrong. In provisions there has been a fair moveprovisions there has been a fair move-ment and prices for ten days have been steady. The seed market is quiet at un-changed prices. Hide market is dull and prices weak. Poultry and eggs rule steady, with receipts light for March. Despite the unsettled condition in prices of wheat the flour market has ruled firm at the range of prices of the last thirty days.

ers of dairy cattle in particular feel this ne-For two years at the Indiana Experiment Station we have planted Canada field peas and oats for this purpose. The first year of planting we scattered pea seed at the rate of two inches. The plants thrived with great vigor until severe drought checked their growth, in common with all other farm crops. Either method of planting will no doubt be satisfactory. In planting oats and peas the first seeding should be gotten in at the earliest date possible, when the land may be satisfactorily worked. One or two more plantings, at tenday intervals, will give a good succession of crops, covering about six weeks.

While cutting the green crop may begin as early as wished, after some length of stalk has been secured, it is advisable to wait until the oat head begins to expand, and when the peas are passing from the bloom. The best plan is to secure the green fodder

If not all fed green, the balance of the crop may, with advantage, be plowed under or cused for hay.

The expense for seed is not great. Oats may be bought in the market at prices varying from 15 to 25 cents per bushel, according to location. The pea seed purchased by this station this spring cost 90 cents a bushel laid down at the home depot. In buying be sure and get Canada field pea seed.

WEAK WHEAT MARKET BECOMES

FIRM WITH ARMOUR BUYING.

The Strength Extended to Corn and Oats, both Closing Higher-Provisions Were Henvy.

CHICAGO, March 26.-Armour was regarded as the leading factor in wheat today. It was thought to be largely due to his influence that a weak and bearish market became firm at the close, leaving off with a net gain of 1/2c. Corn advanced 1/3c and oats 14@%c. Provisions were rather heavy.

The wheat trade was a smaller volume, but fluctuations were fully as wide as yesterday. Opening sales were at 1/6 1/4c loss, and sold off 46%c more, rallied 1@1%c, changed some and closed as stated. The name of Armour was at the bottom of all the fanciful causes for the day's strength. That Armour & Co. have themselves or through agents chartered vessels to load about 350,000 bu of red winter wheat is generally accepted as true. Among the influences brought to bear on the market early which had depressing tendencies were the indifferent Liverpool cables, they showing no sympathy with yesterday's rally on this side, and then reports from western and central Kansas gave very flattering accounts as to the condition of the growing wheat. Another influence was the larger cash business closed late yesterday, 115,000 bu being sold by one concern for spring shipment and a total for to-day of 115,000 bu. Export clearings at the Atlantic seaboard showed up well, forming a total of 186,000 bu wheat and flour. The corn market was again dull, but the price advanced in sympathy with wheat and the small receipts. The lowest price was made at the opening, when May sold at about last night's figures—29%@29½c—and the highest was current near the close, when it sold at 29%c. Oats were firm. Sympathy with wheat was to some extent the cause of the advance, yet good buying by shorts was the main cause. Market was active throughout the entire session. May opened unchanged at 19½c, sold up to 19%c, and closed with 19¾@19%c bid.

The provision trade was light and the feeling rather heavy. The packers were sellers of July and buyers of May pork and ribs to a moderate extent. The week's packing in the West was 225,000 head, against 270,000 on the similar day of the year before Pork the similar day of the year before. Pork wound up with a decline of 21/2c for the day. From a Broker's View Point. (By S. C. Igoe & Co.'s Wire, 429 Lemcke Building.)

CHICAGO, Margh 26 - We cannot add much to what we have already said on the wheat situation. Mild and springlike weather will give us soft spots and declines. That is the time to buy it. The cash business to-day and yesterday has been large for milling and export. In addition to this, if we have any serious damage to the winter plant higher prices are not far off. Corn opened easier, with absolutely ders in the pit. Market remained dead until later in the session, when advance in wheat caused local shorts to cover. As there were no selling orders in the market prices were advanced %c. Trade is confined to pit

Trade very light in oats. Some of the lo-cal shorts were buyers. Trade scattering. Provisions opened strong and fractionally higher. Buying was mostly for outside account. Prices eased off during the session, on selling of July product by packing interests, who are doubtless beginning to work their carrying charges from May to July.

MOTION TO ADVANCE FILED IN AP-PORTIONMENT CASE.

The Appellee's Brief-Complications That Gave Rise to Mr. Igoe's

Unusual Suit.

The appellee's brief in the suit to set aside the apportionment of 1885 was filed, with a motion to advance, in the Supreme Court yesterday. The prospects are that the case will be passed upon immediately, as the affairs of the court will permit it, even should the motion not be sustained The appellee's brief was prepared by Miller, Winter & E'am and A. C. Harris, of this city, and M. E. Forkner, of New Castle. It sets forth that the act of 1885 creates legislative districts which are not in accordance with the enumeration of electors in the district. It is claimed that there no longer remains a doubt of the court's right to pass upon apportionment acts, and that of 1885 is open to the same objections as those of 1891, 1893 and 1895. The brief mentions that the act was denounced as unconstitutional before and after passage, thus answering the claim of the appellant that it could not be attacked because it was not questioned during the sexennial period it was in operation.

The Noblesville Suit.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NOBLESVILLE, Ind., March 26 .- Nearly all the records and papers are completed and ready for the apportionment suit that will be tried here at the April term. Process has been served on all the sheriffs and coroners of the State except the sheriffs of Warren and DeKalb counties and the of Warren and DeKalb counties and the coroners of DeKalb, Jennings and Switzerland counties, April 6 is the day set for the return of service in this case, the first day of the April term of court. Judge Stephenson says that nothing will be done in this case until April 8. The Ninth congressional convention will be held April 7 and court will be formally called on the 6th and adjourn till Wednesday, the 8th. Parties interested in this case should take notice and govern themselves accordingly. notice and govern themselves accordingly.

One of His Neighbors Was Supplied Through His Meter.

of their gas bills, but it is seldom that an effort is made to get the money back after it has once been paid, as T. K. Igoe, the tobacconist, undertook to do when he brought a suit against Foley Bros. & Co., plumbers, 84 Massachusetts avenue, Magistrate Habich heard the case yesterday, Igoe demanded $50. The suit was decided against him. In his complaint Igoe alleged that on Nov. 9, 1894, Foley Bros. & Co., at his request, removed all natural gas pipes and fixtures from his cigar store, at the corner of Washington and Meridian streets, and substituted an artificial gas system instead. The basement was at that time occupied by a barber shop. In an alcove in the basement was a hot water boiler, with a natural gas burner beneath. When the natural gas pipes were removed the plumbers run a line of pipe from the artificial system so that an attachment could be made for the hot water boiler, all of the pipes being fed from the main running through Igoe's meter. After the work was finished the barber employed another plumber to connect what he thought was natural gas pipes to the boiler, paying the Consumers' Natural Gas Company for gas. The difference in the gas was never detected, but Igoe found his gas bill was getting larger all the time. He complained to the gas company. An inspector searched for the supposed leak several times, but could not find it. One day, after times, but could not find it. One day, after Igoe had made an unusually vigorous protest against the size of his bill, the inspector traced the pipes and discovered that artificial gas was being burned under the boiler. Then the mystery was out. Igoe had been paying for several thousand feet of gas every month which the barber was innocently burning. This had been going on for cight months. The Consumers' Natural Gas eight months. The Consumers' Natural Gas Company refunded $7.50 to Igoe, but he thought that he had paid out $45 more for gas than he should have been required to do, and sued the plumbers who changed the pipe, alleging that it was due to their negligence and lack of skill that the mistake occurred, as they knew he had no desire to furnish the barber with gas for heating purposes. Justice Habich thought that Igoe was himself responsible for not detecting the mistake during eight months, and refused to render judgment in his favor.

ONCE SPAT IN HIS FACE.

Mayer Steinberg's Charges Against His Wife-Other Divorce Cases. Mayer Steinberg, a Hebrew optician living on Russell avenue, yesterday brought suit for divorce from Rebecca Steinberg, to whom he was married in 1895. He says the defendant cruelly mistreated him, and he wants her restrained from doing him further injury. He left her some time ago and moved his effects into a room in the neighborhood. While he was absent he says the plaintiff broke into his apartment and carried off his property. With a friend he afterward confronted her, and she asserted that if he had been alone she would have broken every bone in his body. The plaintiff, he avers, indulges in vile and abusive language, and once spat in his face.
Elizabeth L. M. Miller, in a complaint for divorce from William H. Miller, makes for divorce from William H. Miller, makes some serious charges against the general character of the defendant. She avers that for the last nine years her husband has not spoken a kind word to her. On the contrary, he has abused her and threatened to take her life. He deserted her in December, 1895, and since then she has supported herself and children. He expended his money for liquor, she says, and associated with women of ill repute.

The Collector Acquitted. Edward Cushing, a collector employed by Griggs & Tyler, proprietors of an installment furniture house at 118 North Meridian street, was acquitted yesterday of the charge of assault and battery preferred against him by Mrs. Anna Schultz, 6691/2 Madison avenue. The case was tried by magistrate Johnston, Mrs. Schultz testified that Cushing and another man, who represented himself to be an officer, called at her home while her husband was absent to get a clock she had bought on payments. She saw the man approaching-ran up stairs and locked the door behind her. Finding the door shut, she alleges that Cushing threw his weight against it. The lock broke, she says, and the door flew open. According to her story Cushing then grabbed her by the throat and held her while the other man made off with the time-piece. Cushing denied Mrs. Schultz's story in toto. He said that she did not shut the door upon him, and that instead of gra her she laid her hands upon his throa and held him until after Albert Chocari the man who impersonated an officer, carried the clock from the room. As he was leaving the house, Cushing testified that Mrs. Schultz called to one of the children to get "the gun." The child brought a double-barreled shotgun to its mother, who belaborel Cushing over the shoulders, so he says.

Mrs. Schultz is a frall woman and is no match for Cushing, who is a strapping young fellow twenty years old. Mrs. Schultz's attorney was much dissatisfied with the court's finding. While Cushing's story was corroborated by Chocart, the attorney thinks it was so improbable on the face of it that he should have been found guilty and heavily fined. Mrs. Schultz claims that the clock was more than paid for and has brought a suit to replevin it.

Cut Off His Tree Limbs. The da nage suit of Henry Beville against the Indianapolis Light and Power Company went on trial yesterday in Room 1, Superior Court. The defendants, while extending electric lights out East Washington street, removed the limbs from some of the trees growing in front of the plaintiff's residence. The suit is to recover damages for this depredation.

by a "joiner." He valued the members at $5,000 each and brings suit to recover $20,-600 alleging negligence on the part of h.s Haughville Marshal Fined. James Tharp, marshal of the town of Haughville, was fined $5 and costs for assault and battery. The court heard evidence in the case of Samuel Goldstein and Charles Loucks, charged with assault and battery, but made no disposition of the charges.

THE COURT RECORD. Supreme Court.

17751. Hire vs. the State. Madison C. C. Affirmed. Monks, J.-1. When it is assigned the motion to quash the indictment, the objection to the indictment must be pointed out or it, will be considered waived. 2. Admissions of a defendant in a criminal case relevant to the issue may be given whether he testifies or not, and it is within the discretion of the judge to permit such evidence after the defendant has closed his case, but he may give evidence in opposition thereto. 17396. Gas Company vs. Perrego. Marion S. C. Affirmed. Howard, J.-1. On appeal all presumptions are in favor of the judgment, and if there is sufficient competent evidence to sustain the verdict, it will not be overthrown by reason of any conflict therein.

2. Where a gas company allows gas to escape from its mains for a period of three and one-half years and has been notified of the existence of the leak several times, but the existence of the leak several times, but takes no action to try to suppress the leak, it will be liable for the damages caused by the gas escaping from the leak and permeating the soil to a distance of ninety feet and accumulating in a cellar and becoming ignited by a lamp having been taken to the cellar by the plaintiff, who knew nothing of the presence of the gas. And it is not negligence on the part of the plaintiff in not having reported the leak, the plaintiff at the time using gas from another company and living on the opposite side of the street from the leak.
